

CRC Bible School – Payment Terms and Conditions

1. General Payment Terms

All tuition and associated fees are payable in full as communicated upon registration. Students are required to settle their accounts promptly to ensure continued access to classes and materials.

2. Accepted Payment Methods

2.1. EFT

The primary method of payment is Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT). Banking details will be provided upon registration or request.

2.2. Yoco Online Payment Option

Students may request a secure online payment link from CRC Bible School (in partnership with Yoco). This option is available upon the condition that the student must accept and cover the transaction fees associated with Yoco payments.

Fees are as follows: (Subject to change)

Local Cards: 3.39%

International Cards (incl. Amex): 3.91%

Instant EFT (via Yoco): 2.3%

*These fees will be added to the total amount due and must be settled in full.

*These prices include VAT that Yoco charges and will differ from their advertised rates that are excl. VAT.

3. Payment Deadlines

All payments are due by the dates stipulated on the student invoice or communicated via official CRC Bible School channels. Failure to meet payment deadlines may result in:

- Restricted access to class materials.
- Suspension from classes.
- Withholding of certificates upon course completion.

4. Proof of Payment

Proof of payment via EFT must be emailed to the Bible School administrator with the student's surname and latest invoice number clearly stated in the email and payment reference.

5. Non-Refundable Fees

Unless otherwise stated in writing, all payments made are non-refundable, even in the case of withdrawal or non-completion of the course.

6. Queries and Assistance

For any questions or assistance regarding payments, students should contact the CRC Bible School administration directly via the contact details provided during registration.
